Civil Disobedience Movement in Protest against Price Rise

DR. BIPLAB DASGUPTA: (West Bengal): Madam, through you, I would like to bring to the notice of the House the massive movement of people which has been launched by the Left wing parties since 16th August against the anti-people new economic policies of the Government.. ...(Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: We have decided not to have associations. Otherwise...(Interruptions) Just a minute. Let me explain one thing. I must take the help of the House. There are seven Zero Hour mentions and 15 Special Mentions. Now, if the House so agrees that I allow the associations and to speak also on this, then the other Members, who are listed later, suffer. So, it is for the House to decide.

SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY: (Andhra Pradesh) Madam, it is a very important issue.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I know it is important. But I want you to help me out. I do not mind if you associate. But, if you do not make a long speech, that will be appreciated.

SYED SIBTEY RAZI (Uttar Pradesh): Madam, it is your discretion. If you feel that it is a very important matter and the other Members want to associate, you permit.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I do permit most of the time...

SYED SIBTEY RAZI: But they should be brief and specific on the point.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Sometimes even if I find that the matter is not that important, I allow because the Members are sentimental about it. I only request the hon. Members who are associating that if they are very brief, then we can accommodate those who have already given their names and those who want to associate. So, it will be helpful to you. It would not make any difference to me really, but to the House. You please continue.

DR. BIPLAB DASGUPTA: Madam, as I have already mentioned, this movement was launched on the 16th of August, and until now a few lakhs of workers and peasants, middle-class employees and others have already courted arrest in different parts of the country. In several places, the jails are full, and the Government has refused to arrest them and released them soon afterwards. Several MPs have also courted arrest, including some of the MPs of this particular House. And this movement will continue until 9th September by which time we are expecting that about 30 lakh volunteers will participate in this movement and will court arrest, and many more will be participating in other programmes of meetings and processions and so on which would be held throughout this country.

Madam, this campaign has been launched against the bankrupt policies of the Government of India which has put the Indian economy into a serious difficulty, after three years of new economic policies.

If you compare the figures of production for agriculture, industry, gross national product and so on, you will see that there has been a steep decline even compared to the figures ofthe 80s. The economy has suffered very badly. Agricultural production has gone down, industrial production has
